2. Accordingly we recommend that the undersigned jointly call on Mr. Froehke and

a. state the Agency's position as follows:

(1) our immediate concern with congressional staff clearances centers on compartmented clearances;

(2) the Agency has been serving, and is prepared to continue serving, as the intelligence community's office of record for compartmented clearances;

(3) the Agency is in no position to assume similar responsibilities regarding Secret and Top Secret clearances.

b. suggest to Mr. Froehke that, in line with Secretary Laird's letter to you of 28 January, a representative of OSD bring the problem to the attention of someone in the White House--possibly Mr. Harlow or Mr. Timmons--and suggest
